

The three little pigs

Once upon a time there were three little pigs, with their own houses. The first little pig built his house out of straw. The second pig built his house out of wood. The third pig built his house out of brick.

One day, a big bad wolf was hunting for dinner and came across the little pigs' houses. He came up to the house made of straw and said "Come out, come out, come out little pig or I'll blow your house down!". The little pig replied "NO!". So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and blew his house down.

Later, the wolf came up to the house made of wood and said "Come out, come out, come out little pig or I'll blow your house down!". The little pig replied "NO!". So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and blew his house down.

Later the wolf came up to the house made of brick and said "Come out, come out, come out little pig or I'll blow your house down!". The little pig replied "NO!". So the wolf huffed, and puffed, and nothing happened. So one again, he huffed, and puffed, and nothing happened. He couldn't blow the house down!

The wolf walked away in defeat.
